DAY OF COMMENCEMENTS.

MANY UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES GRADUATE STUDENTS.

arvard's Large Number of Degrees and Honors-Kale's Exercises All in English for the First Time-Dartmonth Grants a Postgraduate Degree to a Woman,

CAMBRIDGE, June 24, - To-day was comnencement at Harvard. The programme this year contained no new features. The rule as to punches has forever shut out that old-time auxiliary of the festivities, and the literary exercises and awarding of diplomas were held with the same formality which has characterized hundreds of other [Harvard commencement

The literary exercises were held at 10:30 in the Sanders Theatre. At 9:30 the seniors and candidates for other degrees assembled in front of Hollis Hall. At the same time the overseers and corporation, with the President and faculties of all departments, met at Massachusetts Hall for the custom of welcoming the Chief Magistrate of the Commonwealth and the Sheriffs of Suffolk and Middlesez countles. Acting-Governor Wolcott and staff came out in carriages, escorted by the Lancers, who marched back to Boston as soon as the Governor had on welcomed by the university officials.

Then with a band the undergraquates, guests, and officers and graduates of the university in order marched to Sanders's Theatre. After the | ingly. graduating speakers had been heard, degrees were announced by President Eliot, who adiressed the candidates in Latin. The degrees in course having been disposed of the President nnounced the names of those upon whom had been conferred honorary degrees by vote of the everseers earlier in the morning.

At 10 o'clock the alumni association met for usiness, and at 2:30 the commencement dinper began in Memorial Hall. There are 300 schelors of arts, as against 363 last year; 20 bachelors of science, 2 bachelors of agricultural science, 13 doctors of veterinary medicine, 22 doctors of dentistry, 85 doctors of medicine, 35 of whom received the honorary degree of cum of whom received the honorary degree of cum laude; 16 doctors of medicine, who have taken the three years' course; 104 bachelors of law, 17 of whom received the honorary degree of cum laude; 10 bachelors of divinity, 98 masters of arts, 18 doctors of philosophy, and 1 special student not entitled to a degree awarded a certificate of work done. No less than 158 received honorable mention for excelling in certain specified branches of study varying from Greek to chemistry.

Highest honors signify that the recipient has done almost perfect work in his special branch. Honors signify a little less degree of attainment. Seventeen received highest honors in special branches. For general excellence there are three classes of the degree of A. B., with distinction. The highest, summed cum laude, was conferred on six men for general excellence: one for highest honors in special branches, and on two for both reasons. The second degree with distinction, magna cum lande, was given to fifty-three. Eighty-live received the next degree of cum lande, and the rest of the class had to be content with a plain degree.

The following honorary degrees were con-

The following honorary degrees were conferred: Li. D. Gen. Nolson A. Miles, U. S. A.; Judge Mason Webb, Maine Supreme Bench: Prof. William Robert Ware, architect; Alexander Graham Bell, inventor: Prof. William Glison Harlow, botanist of Harvard: D. D., M. E. Bishop John Heyi Vincent of Kansas; the Rev. Weeley Othenan Holway, the senior chaplain of the United States Navy; the Rev. Minot J. Savage of New York; A. M., John Mufr, explorer: Wilberforce Eames, historian; Booker T. Washington (colored), principal of the Tuskege Normal and Industrial Institute (this is the first and only honorary degree ever conferred by Harvard on a colored man); Gordon McKay, Esq. inventor; Thomas Hailey Aldrich.

Five hundred alumni and their guests partook of the annual commencement dinner in Memorial Hall this afternoon. Among those in attendance were Gen. Nelson A. Miles, the Rev. Minot J. Savage, Senator Lodge, Booker T. Washington, Acting Gov. Wolcott, Precident Edmund Wetmore of the Alumni Association, and President Eliot, all of whom made afterdinuer speeches, each on different topics. They were almost all enthusiastically received, but the colored man carried off the oratorical honors, and the applause which broke out when he had finished was vociferous and long continued. The Harvard Glee Club sang several songs.

YALE'S NEW DEPARTURE.

FALE'S NEW DEPARTURE,

Pirst Commencement in Which the Exercises Were Entirely in English.

New Haven, June 24.—Yale's formal commencement exercises were held in Battell Chapel, and were the most impressive ever held. They were the first in which the English style of programme was ever carried out exclusively here, and the change from the former method was declared a success. The exercises proper were preceded by the formation in line of the entire commencement party, the march around the campus buildings to Battell Chapel, and the entrance into Battell Chapel. In the chapel the elaborate musical programme was easy, July 1, at 2 o'clock.

HAMPTON JUNCTION, N. J., June 24.-Mr. Rebecca Sutton shot Martin Reed this morning and then put a bullet in her own heart. He died in a few hours. She died instantly. They were paramours, and came from Califon, a village not far away, where Mrs. Sutton's husband lives. She was 48 years old and he was twenty years younger. They first met at Califon. Reed boarded with the Suttons, who had eight children, the youngest being 14 years old. There are also three grandchildren.

Sutton finally left her husband. She and Reed then lived together next door. Finally the woman came to Hampton Junction to keep house for Hotel Keeper W. J. 11iff, who formely was a p eminent politician in Hunterdon went down stairs and let her in. He saw no one with her, but from what followed it is pretty certain Reed was present, but was keeping himself in the background. This morning Mrs. Sutton arose at the usual hour and got breakfast. While she was at work lift came down stairs. Later she went to her room, and soon after lift heard several pistol shots. He ran to her room and found Reed unconscious in the bed with two pistol wounds in the left temple and one in his left ear. The woman lay dead on the floor. A pistol was under her. One shot had been fired by her into her breast after she had shot Reed, and it must have killed her instantly. Reed lived until 2 o'clock.

Reed was a sawmill hand and day laborer of Califon. He was single. After Mrs. Sutton left Califon he lived most of the time at Heattytown, but frequently saw the woman at this place. It is said that Sutton knew of his wife's infidelity long before she left him. There were frequent family quarrels. The wife declared she had ample reason to leave him. Two weeks ago Sutton came here and had a talk with his wife. She finally agreed to go home with him and try to get along. She was gone a week and then came back and told Mr. Hiff that it was no use. She could not live with her husband.

She said she had left after a terrible quarrel. One of her daughters said to-day that Sutton had struck his wife. It turns out that when Mrs. Sutton went driving last night she drove over to Beattytown and found Reed. She asked him to come back with her. At first he refused, promising he would come to-day, Mrs. Sutton went driving last night she drove over to Beattytown and found Reed. She asked him to come back with her. The ront door of the house was found open. The articles stolen were four solitaire diamond rings, four diamond studs, a shawl pin containing seven diamonds, three gold collar buttons set with diamonds, one diamond locket, and a pin rontaining sixteen small diamonds. The other robbery occurred at the residence of Mrs. George Richmond at 832 Hudson street. Mrs. Richmond and her two daughters were at supper when it occurred. The burglars took a pair of diamond exertings valued at $350, a diamond ring, and $150 in money.

THE GENTRY MURDER TRIAL. Lawyer Brooke in Philadelphia to Defead

PHILADELPHIA, June 24.—The trial of Actor James H. Gentry for the murder of his sweetheart, Margaret W. Drysdale, the actress, who was known professionally as Madge Yorke, was resumed this morning before Judge Yerkes. Lawyer Charles W. Prooke, the senior counsel Jurnished Booms Co Tet-Brooklyn. for the prisoner, reached here from New York at 10:20 o'clock, and upon his arrival in the court room District Attorney Graham began his opening address to the jury. The court room was crowded. Gentry sat in the dock, guarded by two court officers, and he kept his eyes fixed upon the District Attorney as the prosecutor proceeded with his address. The aged mother of the prisoner sat near her son. Mr. and Mrs. Drysdale of New York were seated with the sobbed aloud. District Attorney Graham spoke for forty-five minutes.

Miss Eliza Ana Clark, a member of the theatrical company with which Miss Brysdale was associated, and who was the princinal witness to the shooting, testified that she and Miss Drysdale were alone in Miss Clark's room in Zeiss's Hotel when Gentry entered the apartment. He asked Miss Brysdale to kiss him, and upon her refusal to do so he shot and killed her, and then threatened to shoot the wilness.

William J. Milligan, who was a magistrate at the time of Gentry's arrest, identified a formal statement relative to the tragedy which defendant made to him while in a hospital several days after the affair, and in which he said he was insanely jealous. Lawyer Brooke objected to the admission of the statement as evidence, but the objection was overrised.

Frederick Zeiss, proprietor of the hotel where the murder was committed, told of Gentry's entrance into the place, and Sarah E. Somers and Carrie Hobson (both colored), narrated his escape by a side street.
